SCROOBIOUS SPACES

Great Networks Don't Fade. Yours Shouldn't Either.

Scroobious Spaces give your community its own private, branded home, tethered to your organization long after a program ends. It's where members go when they need something: the right advice, the right connection, sometimes capital.

THE CHALLENGE

Your network is your biggest asset, but it lives in your staff's heads and inboxes.

- Every intro is made by hand. Your team brokers each connection one at a time.
- When a cohort ends, the network goes quiet. Alumni drift, mentors and investors move on, and referrals dry up.
- When staff leave, relationships leave with them. Years of trust walk out the door.
- Impact is hard to prove. Funders and sponsors want results you can't easily show.

Group chats, alumni newsletters, and events help, but they only work while someone is working them.

THE SCROOBIOUS SOLUTION

Turn Your Network Into Your Competitive Advantage

Every Space sits inside Scroobious, a relationship-first network of founders, investors, and mentors, so your community is one hop away from other accelerators, funds, universities, and investor networks on the platform, whenever members choose to connect. Your members keep getting value, and you keep getting deal flow, referrals, and evangelists.

Ready When They Need It

Members post asks and offers and get matched by stage and story. A weekly digest brings the activity to their inbox, so value shows up before anyone has to log in.

One Hop Away

Your community stays yours. Members can opt in to the wider Scroobious network and meet people from other accelerators, funds, universities, and investor groups.

Engagement Analytics

Real activity data and trend tracking across your network. Know when to step in, celebrate, or connect, and show funders and sponsors the impact of your program.
